

Ansonia that they evened up the score. The final result was, Ansonia, 7 goals; Presbyterians, 4.

The final games brought together Ansonia and the Thistles of Bridgeport, and a strenuously contested battle resulted in Ansonia's winning the first game by a score of 3 to 1.

The second game was played at Bridgeport, before a record attendance, and was one of the most interesting contests of the cup series, and resulted in a victory for the Bridgeport Thistles by a score of 5 to 1. Among the prominent soccerites who came from New York to witness the game were Mr. Thomas Bagnall, president of the New York and District Amateur League, Thomas W. Cahill and A. N. Beveridge. After the game the Connecticut State Cup, emblematic of the championship of the State, was presented to the Thistles.

FINAL LEAGUE STANDING.

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Tied.	Pts.
Park City	10	8	1	1	17
Waterbury	10	6	4	0	12
Ansonia	10	5	4	1	11
New Haven	10	5	5	0	10
Thistles of Bridgeport	10	3	7	0	6
Naugatuck	10	2	8	0	4

THE "BEAR CATS" SOCCER FOOT BALL TEAM,
Brooklyn, N. Y.