

1, Edgar Pomeroy, Soccer Commissioner of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, who introduced soccer at the club. The game has taken a firm hold and attracts squads of the best athletic skill in the organization. 2, J. N. Young of Berkeley, one of California's soccer authorities. 3, A. H. Macgregor, Football Commissioner of the Barbarian Club, San Francisco. 4, J. E. Belton, Secretary San Francisco Football League, 1922-23.