

CHARLES M. SCHWAB.

Mr. Schwab's efforts in the development of soccer and other athletic sports for recreation of his host of employes at the Bethlehem steel works, materially aid the great industrial athletic movement that has attained such an enormous growth throughout the country.