many of the games would have been completed before the season of snow. The many delays brought about a late season start, and the first league game was played October 7, about one month later than in former years.

Ten clubs originally started the season; but, after playing seven games with indifferent success, the Brooklyn Foot Ball Club dropped out of the league, and the remaining nine clubs finished the season. The clubs comprising the league are: West Hudson Foot Ball Club, Hollywood Inn Foot Ball Club, New York Thistles Foot Ball Club, New York Caledonian Foot Ball Club, Bronx Rangers Foot Ball Club, Paterson Rangers Foot Ball Club, Brooklyn Thistles Foot Ball Club, Favorite Foot Ball Club, and Cameron Foot Ball Club.

Taking the entire season, the Hollywood Inn Club was the best all round team; but unfortunately they left the field of play before the expiration of time in the last game played with
