

National Foot Ball Referees' Association

HEADQUARTERS—NEW YORK.

The National Foot Ball Referees' Association, with headquarters in New York, was organized in January, 1912; the object of the association is to ascertain by means of written or oral examination the competence of persons, who are willing to undertake the duties of referees; to admit such competent persons as members; to referee on application from any club or association, and to meet monthly for mutual instruction and discussion on all matters likely to benefit the game or its members, and to issue annually to all leagues, associations, etc., a list of its members.

The association is in a very prosperous condition for its first year, and its members are likely to double in number this year. The president is Mr. C. E. Creighton; vice-president, Mr. F. Davis; secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. Welsh, 102 Maple St., Weehawken Heights, N. J.
