

VIKING A.C. OF NEW YORK CITY.

By ERNEST J. VIBERG, MANAGER.

One of the leading clubs in the Southern New York State Football Association last season was the Viking A.C. The club had three teams, of which "A" competed in the New York State League, National Challenge and Amateur Challenge Cups and the State Cup, the "B" won the Scandinavian Athletic League Cup Competition and "C" played only exhibition games.

The "A" team, known as one of the country's foremost amateur elevens, had its best season. In the league thirteen games were won, one tied and four lost, scoring thirty-six goals to twenty against. Viking finished third, only two points behind the winning Lexington F.C. In the National Challenge

Cup Viking met New York in the first round, and lacking some of its best players, was eliminated, 4—0. In the Amateur Challenge Cup, the Overseas Wanderers F.C. eliminated them, 3—2, although the Vikings defeated this team twice in the league. In the State Cup, Yonkers Thistles F.C. won over Vikings in the first round, 3—1. In the International games, Sweden was represented with the exception of two players, by Viking "A" members. Here the team went up to the final, where the Americans won, 2 to 1.

The Viking A.C. is composed entirely of men of Swedish birth or extraction. The "A" team got a wonderful addition to its forward line last
