

1, Charles K. Murray, Newark, N. J. 2, James Henderson, Newark, N. J., the man to run a soccer column in a New York newspaper—the Evening Globe. 3, Post, Scottish-American F.C., Newark, N. J., one more soccerite who has khaki to take up a bigger game. 4, Hugh Magee, Secretary New York F.C. middleweight boxing champion of Ireland and former manager of New York F.C. 5, William Campbell, formerly an official of the New Jersey State Football Association, who is now "Over There." 6, Theo. Dillman, Secretary-Treasurer York Footballers' Protective Association; Delegate-at-Large Southern New York Football Association. 7, Shepard G. Barclay, New York City. 8, Michael W. Brooklyn, N. Y., a soccer writer who has done much to popularize the game. Ernest Viberg, U.S.N., New York City; Member of Stockholm Club and prominent U.S.F.A. soccer circles.