

King Christian X of Denmark, the center figure of the three seated in the roped-off enclosure, was an interested spectator at the game played in Copenhagen on September 1, 1919. To the King's left is Dr. E. Baehm, President of the Copenhagen Football Club.