

1. A brilliant "save" by Goalkeeper Duncan of the Bethlehems in the game with the selected team from the Swedish Provinces, played in Stockholm, August 17, 1919. 2. Archie Stark heading the ball to Fleming for a shot at goal in the opening game, August 10. 3. You can go higher after a ball with your head than with your toes, especially in close quarters. An incident in one of the Stockholm games.