

to encourage the little fellows to carry on their soccer activities after leaving the juvenile ranks." The league has headquarters at Harrison and enjoys a special affiliation with the New Jersey State Football Association. Although the youngest soccer loop, it has the distinction of being the wealthiest organization for soccer football in New Jersey. The teams are fully equipped and each player in the junior class pays a small fee to the league.

Probably the biggest attraction in the West Hudson Junior circuit is the magnificent Cahill Challenge Trophy, the massive silver and gold cup donated by Secretary Thomas W. Cahill of the United States Football Association. The trophy was brought from the West by Mr. Cahill early in the '90's and will be competed for annually. At the present time it is held by the Entre Nous Juniors of East Newark, who won the first annual junior soccer final contest from the Lackawanna Athletic Club of Harrison on April 29, 1923, on Washington School Oval, Kearny. Entre Nous decisively trimmed Lackawanna by five goals to three. On Saturday evening, June 9, at Krueger Auditorium, Newark, a banquet was held for all the teams in the junior loop. Besides the Entre Nous Junior and Lackawanna teams, there were the Ryerson Juniors, who battled their way to third place in the new league; the Warren Football Club of Harrison, the Harrison Rangers and the R-Own Football Club, also of Harrison. The guests of the evening included National Secretary Cahill, President Andrew M. Brown of the American Football Association and Secretary William Patrick of the New Jersey State Football Association.

Besides the junior circuit, West Hudson also conducted a juvenile league of eight teams. This series was won by the Ramblers Soccer Club of Harri-
